Ehud,

Jordan's was the service used to set up the UK company and was the service selected by UK counsel (Freshfields) at the time. I will check with UK counsel on this and revert.

Best,
Menachem

Dear Norm
We've got this unsolicited. Can you check please with the Law Firm in UK which helped us register TrueSec whether this operation ("Jordan's") is known to them,reliable,was sent by them? etc.
If not, can they recommend to us someone else who provide these services? Unless it sounds bad in the UK to have this.
I'll appreciate it if you can add your advice on this item.
Thx.Best
EHud Barak

Dear Mr Barak

It appears that our welcome letter was not sent to you, apologies for this oversight.

May I welcome you to Jordans Registered Office Service. I have pleasure in attaching the Letter of Engagement for our services giving details of the duties that we will be undertaking. Can you please sign the Letter where indicated to confirm your agreement to our terms of engagement and return to us at our Bristol address.

(See attached file: 20130626 - LOE [Intermediary].pdf)

The address provided for delivery of official mail and documents for the purpose of complying with the Companies Act 2006 is 20-22 Bedford Row, London WC1R 4JS. This address must be shown on all business letters and order forms.

The address provided for the Directors service address is 21 St Thomas Street, Bristol BS1 6JS.

Your forwarding address has been entered on my records and all mail received will be sent to that address without delay. To avoid any interruption to the service can you please advise any change to the forwarding address immediately.

New Government regulations mean that we now are required to collect evidence of our client's identity as part of a world-wide initiative to deter and detect money laundering. Attached you will find an important questionnaire detailing exactly what is required. Please note that if we do not receive the completed questionnaire and documentation from you, we will be unable to continue to supply services to you.
